1ST SUNDAY
AFTER TRINITY

St Peter and St Paul's Church, Horndon-on-the-Hill

At a Communion Service if you require gluten free wafers please let the minister know when you go forward to receive.

The 10am service may be recorded for our website. If you do not wish to be recorded please speak to a churchwarden.

If you attend a service because you wish to apply for a place for your child at a church school which requires a letter or Supplementary Information Form, please make sure, each time you attend, you sign the red attendance book which is available at the back of church.

If you attend a service to gain a Qualifying Connection in order to be married at any of the three churches, please make sure, each time you attend, you sign the purple attendance book which will be available at the back of church.

Today's Collect

God of truth, help us to keep your law of love and to walk in ways of wisdom, that we may find true life in Jesus Christ your Son.

Post Communion

Eternal Father, we thank you for nourishing us with these heavenly gifts: may our communion strengthen us in faith, build us up in hope, and make us grow in love; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Dear Everyone,

June is a busy month. We are all looking forward to the Feast and Fayre Weekend on 25th and 26th June at Horndon when we will be celebrating the Patronal Festival of St Peter and St Paul. I know that many people are working hard to make this a great event. During that weekend there will be two church services: one on Saturday 25th June at 10am, in the Church, to open the weekend and one outside at 9.15am on the Sunday morning. There will also be a flower festival and refreshments will be served and I know that the Church will look lovely.

Thank you to those who have returned raffle ticket money. Just a gentle reminder to those who still have books of tickets to try and sell them and return any money, stubs or spare tickets to the wardens at one of the churches, to Lynda Robertson or to me.

This Sunday afternoon we have our Contemporary Refresh service at 4pm at Horndon Church when we are looking forward to welcoming some children from Horndon School who are coming to sing. It would be lovely to see as many people as possible at this service.

Forest Church will be back on Saturday 2nd July at Orsett Church and this will be preceded by Count on Nature at 3pm. More details are available on page three of these notices.

Finally, please could you let me know if you are available to help at the Orsett Show which takes place on Saturday 3rd September. I am responsible for organising the Deanery Stand at this show and need helpers for this. If you are able to help, there is a meeting at the Rectory on Tuesday 28th June at 7.30pm. If you are able to help, I would love to hear from you.

Finally, as ever, please do let me know of any prayer or pastoral needs.

Take care and God bless

Sue

Prayers for the week

Prayer Diary

- FIRST SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY—Tomorrow is World Refugee Day: Please pray for all who flee to other countries, or are internally displaced within their own country, due to war, famines, plagues, persecution, discrimination, natural disasters like floods and earthquakes, and to escape dire poverty. Pray too, for all organisations, churches and communities who are working tirelessly to care for refugees.

Orsett Show

Dear Everyone,

I am going to be holding a meeting to organise the Orsett Show on Tuesday 28th June at 7.30pm at The Rectory, School Lane, Orsett. RM16 3JS.

The Orsett Show, this year, will be on Sat 3rd September at The Orsett Showground, Rectory Road Orsett.

The stand, as always, will be a Thurrock Deanery Stand and we will need as many helpers as possible.

Please could you let me know ASAP if you are able to attend the meeting to represent your church. If you are unable to attend and know that someone from your church has been involved in the past, perhaps you could send them to the meeting instead.

I look forward to hearing from you.

God bless, Revd Sue

St Giles and All Saints Church, Orsett

3pm
Churches Count on Nature

We are celebrating wildlife in the churchyard by observing and recording the plants and animal we find.

Please come along and help us discover what wildlife is living in Orsett's churchyard.

Your results will be included in a national survey which counts wildlife in churchyards and beyond

4pm
Forest Church

Encounter God in the great outdoors: in the sky, the earth, the trees and the wildlife.

This service is for all, old and young and includes outdoor fun activities on a Biblical theme and worship around a fire.

The service will carry on even if it is raining so please dress appropriately. You should also bring along a rug or a chair to sit on.

I look forward to seeing you there.

Revd Sue

A reflection from the Dean of Chelmsford

The Very Reverend Nicholas Henshall writes:

At the heart of Christian worship is Jesus' invitation: "do this to remember me".

We may have all sorts of different ways of responding to that invitation and different understandings of what is happening when we take bread and wine, bless them, and share them, but here I simply want to reflect on three different names for our response.

First "Holy Communion" – a beautiful and rich name that invites us to see that when we eat the bread and drink the cup we have communion in four different ways: with God, with one another, with all our Christians sisters brothers across the world who are doing this to remember Jesus; and with all the followers of Jesus since that first gathering in the upper room.

Second "Eucharist" a word that simply means "thanksgiving" and is the word the Gospels use when Jesus blesses the bread and the cup. Its use as a name for a service is relatively modern and has no history with any particular denomination or group so belongs to all of us: thanks and praise at the heart of our life together.

And third "Mass" a word used mostly by Swedish Lutherans and Roman Catholics, which simply means "get out of here!" It is the same word as "mission" and reminds us that at the heart of Holy Communion is Jesus' invitation to go out and tell the good news. Or in words ascribed to Augustine of Hippo: "You are to be taken, blessed, broken and distributed that the work of the Incarnation may go forward."

Eco Pause for Thought

Clear out your closet carefully

With an estimated 85% of textiles ending up in landfill, it's essential that you consider what happens to your clothes when you're finished with them. Sell your items to ensure they go to a new home, and look for charities that are in need of preloved clothes.
