Today's Collect

Heavenly Father, your son battled with the powers of darkness, and grew closer to you in the desert: help us to use these days to grow in wisdom and prayer that we may witness to your saving love in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dear Everyone,

As I write this, we are in the period of Lent, having shared Prayers and Pancakes on Zoom on Shrove Tuesday followed by an online, outdoor Ash Wednesday Service on 17th.

Regarding Lent, Bishop Peter in his recent letter wrote,

Lent is a return to the roots of our faith: to scripture, to prayer, to forgiveness and reconciliation, to deeper discipleship and much more. Above all, it is a return journey to Jesus as our first love. (Revelation 2:4) Each Ash Wednesday as I receive the sign of the cross, I see again the Prodigal Son returning to his father and practising the words he knows he needs to say, 'Father I have sinned against heaven and against you and am no longer worthy to be called your son: make me like one of your hired servants.' (Luke 15: 18,19). Gloriously, as his joyous father runs to greet and hug him he doesn't even get out the full sentence, and his return is celebrated with a party.

This period between now and Easter is an opportunity to grow or rekindle our relationship with God. Sometimes people give things up but it can also be very helpful to undertake something new. With the newsletter this week you will have received a 'Let's Live Lent' sheet with some ideas of a few things you might like to do during Lent.

On another note, I am delighted to announce that, later in the year, Mrs Moji Jaiyesimi will be joining us in the Benefice, as a Self-Supporting Assistant Curate (SSM). This is a training post which lasts for approximately three years. Some of you may have already met Moji as she has been to a few services over the past year. Moji will be ordained in September and I will let you know when she will begin her ministry in due course. Please do pray for her as she completes her studies and prepares to serve amongst us.

As ever, please do continue to let me know of any prayer or pastoral needs.

Take care and God bless, Sue

This Lent Chelmsford Cathedral warmly invites you to join in online as we journey through Lent together at home.

Alongside the usual pattern of livestreamed Morning and Evening Prayer (7.45am and 5.15pm), and Sunday Eucharist 10.30am, a pre-recorded service of compline will be available every Friday evening.

If you haven't tried compline before, it is a short, beautiful, meditative, sung, candle lit service. On Sundays at 3.30pm a service of music and words will be broadcast on Facebook and YouTube at 3.30pm.

Following the popular organ recitals for Advent, Cathedral musicians James Davy and Hilary Punnett will be giving organ recitals during Lent. Details including musical notes to accompany the recital and times will be available on the Cathedral website.

Chelmsford Cathedral's Children and Family's Minister Jean Elliott will be sharing ideas for families to do together on the Chelmsford Cathedral Families Facebook group. Join the group and share your craft creations and Easter bakes with her.

There are a series of courses and reflections being created especially for Lent too.

Join Canon Imogen Nay and Gary Fleming for a five-week, Wednesday evening course, Living in Love and Faith. The course looks at relationships, sex and identity in the context of faithful Christian living and starts on Wednesday 24 February. Email imogen.nay@chelmsfordcathedral.org.uk for more details.

The Very Revd Nicholas Henshall, Dean of Chelmsford will be recording a series of lectures on 'The Seven Penitential Psalms.' These will be made available from 5pm on Sunday afternoons.

Have you ever wondered what Christianity is all about? Why not find out more this Lent? A new course starting on 4 March allows you to get to grips with the key themes of Christianity over three Thursday evenings including 'who is Jesus?', 'what is the Church?' and 'what difference does it make?' Contact Imogen to join.

And finally, members of the ministry team will be releasing some informal reflections on art that inspires them particularly during Lent.

Holy Week Meditation

Max is leading a series of meditations for Holy Week on selected psalms.

These will be visual meditations for between 20 to 30 minutes.
